DMVbased The Kontrollled Khaos Band (KK) is a powerhouse super-group consisting of extremely talented vocalists, MC's, musicians, and producers. Kontrollled Khaos was established January 2017 by leader, drummer, and visionary Jonathan "Footz" Livas. Footz initially dreamt of gathering artists for a project. However, the dream turned into a reality and Kontrollled Khaos was no longer a project but a band. They sparked a unique genre, Kontrollled Khaos categorizes themselves with a sound known as 'Garage Soul' it has propelled the band to work with numerous artists such as Goldlink, Lightshow and more.

No matter how big or small the venue, Kontrollled Khaos is able to provide a large orchestra sound or a top notch small ensemble. After their debut studio album entitled 'Let Love,' the Kontrollled Khaos began to add to their impressive resume performances at events at the DC Jazz Fest, Takoma Tavern Station, The Fillmore in Silver Spring, and many other venues across the US East Coast. Kontrollled Khaos is committed to mastering their crafts, working in a spirit of excellence, and providing others with a life changing experience. They have released five singles within two years: Break Up, Doing Too Much, The Christmas Song, and Indecision; available on all digital music streaming platforms. Their current single, "Getn2 It!" is available on all streaming platforms.
